

16 September 2011

PRESS RELEASE

Show house opens in Kingsbury Mews

Thomas Homes has opened a stunning new show house at its prestigious Kingsbury Mews development in the grounds of the old Kingsbury House School in Marlborough, to showcase its homes which are exclusively for the over 55s.

With 50% of the three and four bedroom mews houses already sold or reserved, demand for the remaining properties, which are priced from £475,000, is expected to be high. Set in an unrivalled location within walking distance of the bustling High Street, the homes feature the highest design and build standards, including handmade kitchens, and range in size from approximately 1,200 to 2,000 sq ft.

Benefiting from manageable patio gardens and allocated parking, the development has communal landscaped gardens and an orchard with a local variety of apple trees selected by acclaimed cookery writer and food campaigner, Philippa Davenport.

Thomas Homes is one of the largest privately owned property developers in the south of England. For further information on Kingsbury Mews, visit www.thomashomes.co.uk, call Thomas Homes on 01635 247950 or visit the show house which is open Saturday 10am to 3pm or by appointment. Details on Kingsbury Mews are also available by calling Carter Jonas on 01672 514916.

Ends

For further press information, please contact:
Jessica Henman at Vita Communications on 01488 683862 or email jessica.henman@vitacomms.com