

PRESS RELEASE

NEW BURROW FOR EASTER BUNNIES

The first residents at Thomas Homes' stunning development, The Gallops, have taken possession of their lovely new home – just in time for Easter.

To celebrate the event, Lindsay Hunter from Thomas Homes presented David and Amanda with an Easter hamper to keep them going as they settle in to their 3 bed home on this exclusive rural complex.

The Gallops is an attractive courtyard complex of eight 3 and 4 bed houses converted from Foxhill Stables which had a long history of training national winners. The house was a winner for Dave and Amanda who came upon it by chance. "We were househunting in the area and saw the signs. A very friendly person showed us around there and then and as soon as we walked through the door, we knew this was for us" enthused Dave who likes older style properties and is delighted his new home needs no work for him! "We loved the character of the place and were amazed how deceptively spacious the houses are inside. The house is beautifully finished and thoughtfully designed and we can't wait to unpack and settle in," added Amanda. "We were so pleased that Thomas Homes was able to bring the completion forward a month as we had been looking for a while and were keen to leave our rented accommodation".

The Gallops is ideally situated for the couple who work in Aldbourne, 5 miles down the road, and Wootton Bassett – easily accessible from the M4 junction 15 which is about 5 miles the other way. Not only is the location convenient, it is set amidst the stunning Marlborough Downs with views of beautiful countryside as far as the eye can see, yet handy for Swindon, Marlborough, Newbury and Oxford.

There are only 5 houses remaining at the Gallops. All have good sized gardens and are finished to a very high standard and include integral kitchen appliances and details such as smoke detectors and wiring for burglar alarms.
