

PRESS RELEASE

SYKES GARDENS OPEN WEEKEND

Househunters are invited to an Open Weekend at Thomas Homes' new development in Upper Basildon, near Pangbourne. The stunning show house will be open from 11 am to 4pm on Saturday 7th June and Sunday 8th June, and then by appointment Monday to Saturday.

Sykes Gardens is nestled off a peaceful country lane, a short stroll from the local Primary school and pub and comprises two detached four bedroom houses and a terrace of three 3-bed cottages. All plots have front and back gardens, a large garage (one 4 bed house has a double garage) and benefit from glorious country views in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, with a variety of country walks on the doorstep.

The properties are deceptively spacious with flexible living space downstairs and impressive storage facilities upstairs, including deep fitted wardrobes in all the bedrooms. The houses are finished to a high standard of specification, with stainless steel appliances, sleek black granite worktops and Spanish ceramic floor tiles in the kitchens. Bathrooms and en-suites have white sanitary ware, thermostatically controlled showers and stylish heated towel rails. Smoke alarms are mains operated and wiring is in place for burglar alarms. Thomas Homes are known for their thoughtful design and attention to detail and these lovely homes in this desirable location are certain to be sold quickly. Prices range from £350,000 to £600,000 and part exchange deals can be arranged where appropriate.

Upper Basildon is a much sought-after Berkshire village, set in stunning surrounding countryside yet with the local amenities of shops, church, Post Office, pubs and a primary school. The beautiful Thames-side village of Pangbourne is just a short drive down the hill from where intercity rail services to Reading and London operate. It is extremely convenient for the M4, A34 and other trunk routes.
